STIMULATING WORDS.

In referring to the recent consolidation of the LEDGER and Republican, the Stockton Record speaks golden words of encouragement as follows: "Of the many papers coming to the exchange table of the Record, none have filled their respective fields more capably than the LEDGER and Republican of Jackson, Amador county. They have been devoted to their home community and have evinced an intelligent appreciation of the great mining industry on which Amador county is dependent. Both were excellent papers. The two journals have now been consolidated, making a union of resources, business and influence which will be a material factor in the development and advancement of the rich mining section in and about Jackson. As the LEDGER is the older paper, that name will be retained. Mr. Buffington, who has so skillfully guided the destinies of the Republican, assumes charge of the consolidation. He is a writer of marked ability, excellent judgment, correct impulses and conscientious to a degree. He was formerly a resident of Stockton, and, in common with his many other friends and acquaintances in this city, the Record congratulates him on his success and extends hearty good wishes for the future."

SECRETARY HAY scored a great diplomatic triumph in securing guarantees from the leading European nations of the perpetual maintenance of the "open door" at all Chinese ports, which supplements the work done by our Navy and secures our trade relationship with China. Twelve months ago no nation would have listened to a proposition of this kind, but the whole world listens to the United States now. Some idea of the vastness of the interests involved may be gained from the fact that while ten years ago our exports from the Pacific Coast to all countries aggregated $26,000,000, and five years ago $42,000,000, the steady increase in Pacific Coast exports had raised the aggregate to $73,000,000 a year ago.

THE routine work of Congress, such as the preparation of appropriation bills, etc., is much more rapidly done than it used to be. For instance, the House Committee on Indian Affairs, under the old method, when the time came for getting the annual appropriation bill in shape, would request the Indian Commissioner and several of his subordinates to come to the Capitol; then questions were certain to be asked that could not be answered without consulting the records, and much time was lost. Now, the committee meets in a room at the Indian Bureau, gets all the information it requires from the records direct and gets the bill, which is a troublesome one, ready in about one-fourth the time it used to require.

SENATOR HOAR is truly an enigma. A few days ago he made a speech in the Senate on his Philippine resolution, in which he said much calculated to encourage the Filipinos to continue their revolt against the United States. We cannot doubt the sincerity of his opinion, but if ever there was a case of mistaken judgment, it is his. He refuses to see that it would be both dishonorable and cowardly for the United States to abandon the Philippines, not to mention the commercial disadvantage to America that would follow such an abandonment. Mr. Hoar does not seem to realize that the whole civilized world looks to us to give the Philippines good government.

THIS paper proposes to work first, last and all the time for Amador county. In order to be of the greatest possible benefit to a community a newspaper must have the confidence and good will of the inhabitants thereof and the hearty co-operation of all concerned. Now, we want just this state of things: we want the people of this mining section to look upon the LEDGER as a shoulder-to-shoulder helper in all that makes for the betterment of our country. We want them to feel perfectly at home in our office and free to run in and out at any time. Come often and have some news that will brighten the columns of the paper with you.

THE South African war so far has been one continuous round of butchery. The bloodshed, considering the number of men engaged and the short period of time since hostilities began, is dreadful. The bodies of many of England's most gifted and promising young officers are already moldering in the grave; the rank and file has been depleted and still nothing has been accomplished. The Boers have also lost heavily, but they have something to show for their dead thousands. They have baffled English strategy, won numerous battles, and startled the world by their superb war tactics.

THE LEDGER proposes to make a special effort to get mining news, but it will insist on reliable information or none at all. The mineowners of this section will in future be importuned each week by a representative of the LEDGER for accurate and ungainsayable mining news, and if they will meet the LEDGER half way this entire mining belt will be benefited in more ways than one. The LEDGER is anxious to disseminate the truth about our chief industry, but it will not, knowingly, give an iota of space to unreliable statements concerning mines of this section or elsewhere.

UNDOUBTEDLY the friends of Mr. Quay are still confident that he will be seated by the Senate. The decision of the Senate Committee on Elections to report against Mr. Quay's right to be seated, was, apparently, no surprise, and probably it will not affect the final disposition of the case. The matter is likely to come up and a report made to the Senate just as soon as Senator Clark, of Montana, charged with bribery, is disposed of.

THE combined subscription of the LEDGER and Republican enables this office to offer to advertisers a decided advantage over most country papers. Through the columns of the LEDGER our customers can speak to a host of readers every week. Our rates are liberal. Take advantage of the opportunity and we will guarantee satisfactory service.

OUR predecessor, Mr. Will. A. Newcum, will please accept sincere thanks for a fraternal helping hand last week. His assistance was timely and to the point, as we issued both the LEDGER and Republican and had our hands full.

THE LEDGER regrets to learn of the serious illness of C. O. Ziegenfuss, editor of the Calaveras "Citizen." "Zeig" has had his share of sickness and ill-deserves another attack. He has our sympathy and earnest hope that a speedy recovery may follow.

MRS. ELIZABETH SARGENT-WILSON favors the LEDGER readers this week with an interesting sketch of her trip to Inyo county. Mrs. Wilson is an entertaining and charming writer.

WE call attention to an able article in this issue from the pen of Senator John F. Davis, which we take from the Calaveras Citizen

THE PHILIPPINE WAR.

January 10.—General Schwan's force encounters some opposition in Cavite and engage in some fierce fighting.—The Filipino resistance is compelled to temporarily abandon its arms.—New troops get into the skirmishes with a will and do good work.—Cabinet discusses the hemp question and decides to open the Philippine ports as soon as practicable.—Many American soldiers are drowned.

January 11.—Filipinos breaking up into bands. They scatter before American forces in the south. Little resistance is made to the advancing columns.—There is a lack of coasting vessels in the Philippines.—Lieutenant Bowman commits suicide.—Inhabitants of the islands suffering from want of food, resulting from the long blockade.

January 12.—American cavalry makes a daring raid and scatter the rebels.—Progress of the Cavite campaign rapid.—Insurgents suffer heavy loss, but few Americans fall.—Aguinaldo said to be in the province now the center of military operations of Otis.—Rebels make a stubborn resistance.

January 13.—Ports being rapidly opened and commerce in the Philippines takes on a brighter outlook.—The doing of effective work.—Fierce fighting taking place continually.

January 14.—Government will fight the plague. Disinfecting plant for Manila. Extra surgeons are sent out and the Marine Hospital placed in charge. A general epidemic may be prevented.

January 15.—General Bates's troops are operating about Lake Taal. The insurgents continue to retreat southward. 4000 American troops being pursued by Major Cheatham's cavalry.—Transport carrying 1000 coffins leaves Santiago for Manila.

January 16.—General John Wheeler, in a private letter, announces that he will leave the Philippines for the United States.—The Philippine Commission completes its report.—Chapelle regarded as McKinley's agent by the Filipinos.

January 17.—To be shot as bandits is the fate of Panay rebels for bearing arms.—A brilliant victory is gained over the insurgents at Negros.—Wheaton moving on the rebel strongholds.

INJURED IN VESSEL'S HOLD.

Victor Monterichard Probably Fatally Hurt by Falling Freight.

Tuesday last, George Bonney, who had been notified by wire of the injury in San Francisco of his half-brother, Victor Monterichard, left for the bedside of his relative. The following day he telegraphed Dr. Endicott that Monterichard was still alive, but unconscious. Victor Monterichard is well known in this county, having resided here for many years. He was at one time a partner of John Wharf, the blacksmith. His career has been more or less unfortunate. He was twice indicted by a jury in this place. First his blacksmith-shop and later the house he occupied was destroyed by the dread element. Other misfortunes also overtook him, and now, perhaps, the final blow has fallen. The circumstances of the accident are set forth in the San Francisco Post of last Tuesday as follows: "The stevedore who was killed in the hold of the same ship on Monday by the falling of a sling full of freight was identified to-day as Harry Johnson, a native of Sweden, residing at 421 Bush street. "At the time of the accident Johnson was in the direct line of descent of the load and received the full force of the 700 pounds of freight that went tumbling into the hold. He was killed instantly. His companions, Michael Mahoney and Victor Monterichard were severely crushed and are in a serious condition."

TRIAL OF DR. GILES.
It Will Begin Next Monday Morning in Superior Court.
The trial of Doctor Giles will begin in the Superior Court next Monday. Although the prosecution is evincing unusual interest in this case no one here believes its efforts will result in a conviction. In fact, as the evidence adduced at the preliminary hearing is more thoroughly analyzed and discussed the fewer become those who believe him guilty. His past untarnished record in private and official life, his long residence here and the family he has reared make it impossible for our people to wish him anything but vindication of the charge of having caused the death of Mrs. Darling. We hope and believe Dr. Giles will come out of this trouble all right.—Sutter Creek Record.

Episcopal Church Services.
Episcopal services will be held at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning in the Masonic Hall, Rev. W. L. Clark officiating.

Fruit From Folsom.

Thomas Conlon is the recipient of a box of luscious oranges sent from Folsom by John Leonard, brother of Mrs. Conlon. The fruit is from the donor's own orchard and it is prime. He also sent a few lemons, which are equal in every way to the San Diego county product. Mr. Conlon has our thanks for a sample of the fruit.

Messenger McConnell Ill.

R. E. McConnell, Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, was taken sick last night and therefore unable to take his run this morning. Express Agent Goldner acted as messenger as far as Martell's, where the Sutter Creek guard took charge.

Compound Fracture.

Wednesday forenoon, John Perano of Jackson, Cal., aged ten years, fell from an apple tree and sustained a compound fracture of the right arm. Dr. Gail was summoned and rendered the necessary surgical aid.

Cut His Foot.

Ed Fithian of Ione, while chopping wood last Monday, sent the keen blade of the implement into one of his feet, cutting a dreadful gash. There was great difficulty in stopping the flow of blood.

Accident to Superintendent Thomas.

Superintendent Thomas of the Central Eureka mine at Sutter Creek, met with an accident yesterday afternoon resulting in a broken ankle.

OVER THE HILLS, FAR AWAY Trip to the County Seat of Inyo.

A BEAUTIFUL VALLEY—SOME GRAND SCENERY

Country That Is of California but Not Californian—Teachers' Institute.

By ELIZABETH SARGENT-WILSON.

The old saying of "Around Robin Hood's Barn" becomes literal in making a trip from here to Inyo county. It is not far. "Just over the mountains" we say, as we look at Amador and Mono counties on the map, but when one undertakes the journey all is changed. Those mountains that lie between make miles of inches and stretch hours into days. The Sierra! The glory of California! They shelter her from blizzard, shut out the desert, and pen in the sunshine that decks her form with the golden garb of beauty and wealth. As the Alps cradled the poets and artists of old, so our Sierra are destined to shelter the bards and painters of the future.

The traveler of the present finds but the "Rocky Road to Jordan" in going the short way. Inyo is southeast of us, so to get there from Jackson we start in a north-westerly direction, and no language but Eskimo expresses the condition of the roads between here and Inyo. One's every liver-shoot-out. First of all we are packed three in a coach which always reminds me of the nursery rhyme beginning, "Three little bugs in a basket, and hardly room for two." As a send-off you are sure to receive some sort of mud plaster. Women fashion I had my mouth open, so I chewed gravel most of the way. My vis a vis received his so that he gave us uncanny winks of most unbecoming sort all the way down. Now the bouncing up is not at all bad, but the jerk which comes in the night and only a few miles of the road again is what harrows one's spine, then the side jerks make one feel as if in training for the Hula-hula.

I once heard a man say: "Beware of Inyo county, for it has a low tax rate, for it means vile roads, no sewers and few public improvements of any sort." That ride to Inyo caused reflection on the subject.

When a special delight that comes of being caught in a train. As the Inyo train was late in reaching Galt there came the thrilling excitement of being boosted aboard the Sacramento train as it was moving from the station. There was no time for a moment's rest, and the true chivalry of men and thanks Divine Providence that she is a woman.

At Sacramento there is another change, where the close connection with the Chicago Limited. As you fly over the road after the porter has snugly tucked a pillow under your head, traveling seems delightful after all, and one forgets that there ever was such a thing as a stage coach.

We climb higher and higher and the rain drops are replaced by white flakes that robe the mountains in garments of purity. During all this first day of travel the distance from Inyo grows greater instead of less, but at Reno, after remaining over night, our faces turn southward on the Carson and Colorado Narrow-Gauge Railroad. The car is not dead, but it is a living creature, and the typical of that cordial hospitality that Nevada extends to all. It must be the atmosphere for every one there possesses it—that ease and graciousness that lead us to say they are the "pleasantest born." It is catching some way, for even the Plutes have a touch of it. We pinch ourselves in order to realize that we are not dreaming of by-gone days "When Knights-hip was in flower."

The day seems short, and toward evening as we wind our way along Walker lake we catch a glimpse of Hawthorne, where the train stops to rest and feed over night. The morning is a stage center, and although we did not encounter the "bad man from Bodie," we were entertained by a charming woman who, according to her own tell, runs the town, and in the space of three years, she transports you to fairy land, so vivid are her pictures.

From Hawthorne to Keeler, the terminus of the railway, travel is light and the train runs but tri-weekly. Our traveling companions were the Chinese boss of the section men and an inter-rogation point with three young inter-rogation points.

"Where did I live?"
"Where would I remain long?"
"Did I intend to keep the new lodging-house in Independence?"

"Was I married or single?"
"What would have come next I can not tell, for at this place the youngest interrogation point became car sick. The family retired to the rear platform and I was sound asleep when they called me and did not awaken until Bishop was called.

We are in California once more, though it is difficult to realize the fact, for the beautiful Owens valley seems like some rare jewel in a setting so peculiar to itself. The crownhead of the Sierra, Whitney, with his white-robed courtiers, from his throne upon the western side guards his treasure with kingly grace, and on the east a spur of these mountains towers in grim grandeur and awes the beholder into speechless wonder as he gazes upon the magnificence. It is no gradual rise we have on the western side, but a precipitous pile towering above us like a giant.

One must see to realize the prismatic effect, for such coloring as the changes of the day bring forth are beyond description or imagination. One feels like a child in a new world, new heaven and a new earth where "The foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was Jasper, the second Sapphire; the third, Emerald; the fourth an emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst—and I saw no temple within: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb is the light thereof."

This little valley is about seventy miles long and is threaded by the Owens river, which furnishes irrigating water for the farms that yield an abundance of grain and fruit. The grain is largely converted into hay for the purpose of feeding the fine horses that the valley is noted. The people are typical of the mountains, and possess all the sterling qualities that have made hill folks the most powerful since history began. Their isolation renders them self-reliant, and they are eager for the best that the world possesses in the line of culture—and have it. They are alive to all the interests of the times.

The occasion of my visit there was the County Teachers' Institute. It was held at Independence and every one took a lively interest. The day sessions were well attended by the town people, and evenings the pavilion was crowded. It was unusual for those outside of school work to show such an active part in meetings concerning so prosy and uninteresting a matter as the educating of our coming men and women.

The teachers, though few in number, made up in quality what was wanting in quantity, for the Inyoites know full well that $15 salaries means $15 teachers, so pay accordingly.

One of the stations of the Weather Bureau is located at Independence and Mr. McLean, the officer in charge, threw open the observatory for the benefit of the visitors and kindly explained the working of the delicate machinery, so that we were able to understand how the weather man can tell us when to take umbrellas and when to leave them home.

The week's work closed with a grand ball, at which all threw care to the winds and joined in the merry dance. As most of us took the train at 6 o'clock the next morning it was thought best not to stay all night. Thus ended one of the most delightful gatherings of the kind that it has ever been my good fortune to attend.

With a hearty goodspeed from Superintendent Hampton, to whose untiring efforts are due the happy week, and joyous holiday wishes from all, the homeward journey is started with the eager hope of reaching Lodi in time to take Christmas dinner with home folks, but, alas! the best laid plans of men and men gang at sixes. In the morning a train four hours late, and another five, the dinner was taken in company with Lonesomeness in a dining-car, where you wonder if dynamite would in this measure clear the way for the of these automations, the Pullman porters. With aerial navigation it is to be hoped that there will evolve a new species of transportation officials.

At Lodi, the best laid plans, but on looking out of the window, this side of Colfax, a white sea spread away as far as eye could reach. Fog—wet, dripping, penetrating fog. We plunged into it shortly, and the outer world being lost, in this way we were about for four days in the San Joaquin valley, then started for Jackson. On New Year eve, in good wholesome weariness the well-worn words, "There is no place like home," fitted me, even if it be but a perch on Court street, with a roof garden, the chief cord of which is cats.

Blessed be cats, for they lengthen the hours of the night and give one time for reflection.

Card of Thanks.

To all the citizens of Jackson who rendered service and sympathy during the late illness and death and burial of my beloved son, I desire to express the sincerest gratitude that can emanate from a parent's heart. I shall ever remember Jackson and its generous and sympathetic people with a feeling of kindness that my words are inadequate to express. Never, it seems to me in the history of mankind, have strangers in distress and sore trouble been better received or sympathized with more keenly, or assisted more promptly, than have the good-hearted people of Jackson tenderly cared for my loved son, Frederick, and efficiently assisted a bereaved and broken-hearted father. My grief was great and my heart ached, but the tender sympathy of the people of Jackson soothed the sorrow and alleviated the pain.

I desire to expressly thank the managers and employees of the Zeila and Argonaut mines for the large contribution raised to defray the expense of my son's sickness and burial, and also Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Voorheis of the New National Hotel, and Mr. F. A. Morrow, pastor of M. E. Church, Rev. Father Gleason of the Catholic Church and Rev. Father Moloney of Sutter Creek. I also wish to acknowledge, with thanks, the courtesy to the living and the burial of my son, the large procession that accompanied a father to the last resting place of a dear son.

Those who sang in the choir, those who furnished floral pieces, the physicians who attended my boy, the nurses who took care of him, all will please accept of my heartfelt thanks.

F. WAGGERSHAUSER.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. H. A. Burbank of Antelope was a county seat visitor this week.

A. Ratto, contractor, went to Sacramento last Wednesday morning on business.

Ex-District Attorney E. A. Freeman returned from San Francisco last Saturday evening.

George Brown went to San Francisco last Sunday morning and will return tomorrow night.

S. M. Cochran of Camanche has accepted a position as bookkeeper for A. Chichola of Jackson Gate.

G. G. Fraser, the popular commercial tourist, was here this week and reported business in his line very good.

L. H. Bicker of San Francisco, Post-office Inspector for this district, visited several offices in the county this week.

Will. A. Newcum and George Bonnell visited a mining property in Calaveras county last Sunday and Monday.

John Nicolayson of the Argonaut force, has resumed his duties, after a six weeks' visit with friends in San Francisco.

F. Wagnershauser of Reedley, Fresno county, member of the late Frederick P. Wagnershauser, arrived January 10th and departed yesterday morning.

A. H. Baughman of Inyo was at the county seat on business last Tuesday. He says it is generally believed in Inyo that the county seat will be built to Jackson some time during the present year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Gross had apartments at the New National for the past few days. Mr. Gross is superintendent of the Centennial mine at Drytown and returned there on the 17th inst.

C. A. Snow & Co.

Patent lawyers, opposite the United States Patent Office, Washington, D. C., who have actual clients in every city and town of the United States and Canada, report that never before in their twenty-five years practice has the work been so busy as up to date. They claim that patents can now be procured in less than one-half the time formerly required.

11-17-29

Miss Lottie Hunting Married.

Miss Lottie Hunting, formerly of Jackson, and who is still remembered by her friends throughout Amador county, was married at Oakland last Tuesday, Jan. 16th, to Denton C. Piper of Denver, Col. Mr. Piper is a nephew of the millionaire, W. A. Piper, who died at the Palace Hotel at San Francisco, a short time ago. The young couple left on the evening train for Denver, Cal., going the "highly priced route." They will reside in Denver, where Mr. Piper is interested in several mines.

Lost.

The top part of an old-style breastpin was lost in Webb Hall, at the Native Daughters' New Year ball. The part lost consisted of a garnet setting, with the accompanying band of gold and pearls. Very highly prized as a necklace. Please return to Mrs. Newcum, Jackson.

Love's Hall Reopened.

Love's Hall has reopened, and will hereafter be conducted as an opera-house and hall.

Has Resumed Practice.

Attorney John F. Clute has resumed the practice of his profession in San Francisco. His office is in the Mills building. His Amador office is at the corner of his honor, eminence and wealth.

MILES FROM MANY MINES

Good Work Being Done at the Manuel Santirio.

LUCAS MINE SHUT DOWN FOR WANT OF FUEL

Another Gigantic Enterprise to Be Inaugurated in Tuolumne County.

AMADOR COUNTY.

Manuel Santirio—Pine Grove.

At this mine, which is located at the head of Santa Clara Gulch, one and one-half miles northeast of Pine Grove and which has recently been bonded by the Messrs. Watkins, much work is being done. New sluices have been put in and a new twenty-horse-power friction engine and boiler has been placed in position. The latter, with the help of triple-rigged blocks, has the capacity to lift bowlders weighing ten tons. Roads have been built and many other improvements made. The senior Mr. Watkins is a practical machinist and makes all the patterns for the machinery used in and about the mine. This mine was a good producer in past days, and, under its present able management, will, no doubt, help to materially increase Amador county's gold output for 1900.

H. D. C.

The Lucas—Big Bar.

At the Lucas mine, situated near the recently burned plant of the Blue Lakes Water Company, sinking has been temporarily suspended, owing to the fact that fuel is not obtainable during the present deplorable condition of the highways.

EL DORADO COUNTY.

John Gray of Fairplay, struck a bonanza in his claim last week and brought in quite a quantity of the yellow stuff, some pieces weighing from $1 to $2.50.

Placerville Democrat: G. S. Estey and S. Chaix were up from Latrobe on business last Monday. They brought with them several pieces of ore from the Lucas mine, in which gold could be seen with the naked eye, and have about forty tons of the same on the dump ready to put through the mill. They certainly have a fine prospect for a bonanza.

A Greenwood correspondent sends the following to the Placerville Republican: Peron Lee and Hugh Nicholls have leased the Argonaut mine and are putting in a large flume.—Fred Raab has been sluicing on the Occidental quarry, and has struck a rich storm and has found some rich pieces of ore. Superintendent Keeny is up from the southern extension of the Slinger mine. He says the shaft is down 200 feet and everything working nicely.

Placerville Democrat: In this county the forecast for farming, mining and their related occupations, was never better than now. The unusual rainfall to date, while causing a temporary lull in industrial activities, has made assurance of a prosperous year doubly sure. For farmers, orchardists, stockmen, and those engaged in the raising of mechanical industries, its compensations are countless and inestimable. With improved conditions the trend of circumstances are all in the right direction for mountain and forest, and is coming our way, for a gay and prosperous summer in El Dorado. With bud, blossom and fruitage for field and farm, with golden premiums for mining enterprise, and well focused rays of hope for the future, he comes for his annual jubilee in El Dorado, the gorgeous wonderland he revealed to the pioneers and still loves to glory for their sons and daughters.

CALAVERAS COUNTY.

Mokelum Hill Chronicle: The work of crosscutting at the 150-foot level of the Vorlander mine still continues. The ore looks exceedingly well.

Angels Camp Record: Louis Cutler, superintendent of the canvas plant, commenced last Sunday to turn the canvas and repair the works at this place. Great success has been had at this plant since it started up. Every thing will be put in first-class order at the works.

San Andreas Citizen: Work was started by a force of men in pumping out the Veritas mine, formerly called the Fellowcraft, last Monday. After this was finished rock was taken from the shaft at random by an expert sent here, and this gentleman left Wednesday morning with ore samples to test and report to those who are interested in the purchase of the property. This morning he has returned with several months, although it is known to be one of the best mines in this vicinity. It is most likely that it will be running a full force in the near future, and it is hoped that the mine will be the case, for everybody knows, it would be a good thing for San Andreas.

TUOLUMNE COUNTY.

Sonora Banner: A good vein has been struck in the Draper mine and also a huge volume of water, requiring large pumps to handle it. Indications are that a big body of ore is near at hand.

The Tuolumne Mother Lode Mining and Development Company closed down this week. As near as can be learned, the cause is financial. It is also reported that the property will soon pass to the control of W. A. Neville, who will soon open it up, and, with money to back it, it will set its proper place in the line.

Sonora Independent: George Blake has returned from San Francisco and has closed the O. K. mine temporarily, preparatory to putting up new machinery. A crosscut tunnel is in 400 feet and the shaft is being driven. The mine is in the ledge. Prospects were bright at the closing of works. The mine is owned by the Murdock brothers.

Sonora Mother Lode: Several hundred feet of hydraulic pipe, a water-wheel, two friction-gear hoists for a double derrick, with cable and other fittings, are here in transit to the Philadelphia diggings. The manager of this property is showing the proper spirit, and we hope will make a howling success of the venture.

Sonora Independent: The mill at the Arbona mine is running night and day on very rich ore. After each round of holes in the ledge the superintendent and foreman precede the miners, in order to gather the specimen rock thrown out by the blast. The work of stopping down the 500-foot level is in progress. This property is a case of a mill being erected before the true worth of the mine was known.

The work of draining the old workings of the Buchanan mine is being rapidly pushed. A tunnel is being run to tap the water below the 200-foot level. This water was the occasion of a stoppage of this mine recently, and nothing could be done with the immense volume of water liable to come in at any moment. Superintendent Moorehead expects to complete the work in about sixty days.

Sonora Mother Lode: J. A. Gleason and Phillip Keefe have bonded the property of the Genoa Mining and Milling Company, situated within the southwestern limit of the city of Sonora and fully described in these columns last week.

When it was known that the property could be secured, several parties endeavored to secure it, but Messrs. Gleason and Keefe were the successful ones. They are now in San Francisco to lay the matter before certain capitalists who have signified their intention of exploiting the property.

The work of the prospect, and the development of a paying mine within the city limits must be of great benefit to the city.

Sonora Independent: George F. Dyer, superintendent of the Draper mine, has left for a three weeks' visit to the East, where he will complete arrangements for starting work on the big tunnel at the Horse Shoe Bend quartz mine on the Stanislaus river. A contract has been placed for the necessary machinery—compressors, drills, etc.—for use in driving the tunnel, and it is expected active work will be commenced in ninety days.

M. E. Sanford controls the property. The work will be carried out under the superintendency of a local man, G. F. Dyer acting as manager. The company which is to acquire control of the property is composed of Boston and New York capitalists who stand high in the financial world. The proposition is similar to the Melones mine, which is situated across the river. The company has three water rights, one being 10,000 miners' inches. The tunnel will be driven to a depth of 1,000 feet, and will be situated near the Angels branch of the Sierra Railway, is an additional advantage. Horse Shoe Bend has a record yield of $300,000 in past years.

For Sale.

A solid walnut bookcase and writing-desk, which cost originally $35. A handsome and useful piece of furniture. It will be sold at a great bargain. Call on Mrs. Mary Evans, New National Hotel, Jackson, Cal.

F. P. WAGGERSHAUSER IS NO MORE

SAD ENDING OF A PROMISING YOUNG MAN.

Called Away When He Was Just Entering Upon a Career of Usefulness and Honor.

At 4 o'clock Monday morning, January 15, 1900, Frederick P. Wagnershauser, after a protracted fight of several weeks' duration with injury and disease, paid the penalty exacted by Nature of all mankind. His father arrived in time to be with him a few days before the summons came and did all in his power to alleviate his sufferings.

The funeral took place from the Catholic Church, Rev. Father Gleason officiating, Tuesday afternoon, January 16th, at 2:30 p. m. The congregation was large, many of our most prominent citizens being present. The floral offerings were beautiful. Interment in the Catholic Cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Frederick Eadey, Joseph Newman, Ed. E. Williams, Charles Williams, Ruel Parker and Frank Ardito.

F. Wagnershauser, father of deceased, was the only relative present, and the heartfelt sympathy of our people was sent to the bereaved family, and is coming our way, for a gay and prosperous summer in El Dorado. With bud, blossom and fruitage for field and farm, with golden premiums for mining enterprise, and well focused rays of hope for the future, he comes for his annual jubilee in El Dorado, the gorgeous wonderland he revealed to the pioneers and still loves to glory for their sons and daughters.

Runaway at Forest Home—Amador People at San Francisco—Personal Notes.

FOREST HOME NOTES.

The Usual Winter Work and Pleasure Is Daily Recorded.

FOREST HOME, January 16.—Mr. and Mrs. George D. Wirts went to Inyo last Saturday, returning the same day. L. McCoy, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Los Angeles for the last two months, has returned and is engaged in work for H. O. Comstock.

Our little town was very much excited over a runaway last Monday. The runaway horse was that of Jud Jakeways. It appears that the horse was tied to a hitchingpost in front of Thomas Lambert's residence, and became frightened at something, causing it to break loose and run away. There was no serious damage done save for a cut on the horse's right shoulder, on which it had fallen. The cart to which it was hitched was not damaged. The days at present remind one of springtime, as the flowers in this section are peeping above the mother earth.

Miss Margaret Schillings returned from a two weeks' vacation at home with friends and relatives.

Our school commenced last Monday, with all the scholars in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Allen of Jackson were visitors of the former's parents, Sunday and Monday.

John Bennetts and Eli Taylor are engaged in sawing wood for Mr. Babcock.

George Wirts and sons, Frank and Ed, also P. N. Jackson, are to cut wood for S. Watt of Willow Springs.

Charles and B. E. Barber are at present mining near Arkansas creek. James and Elmer Barney are also mining there.

Miss Annie Piper returned from Plymouth last Thursday, where she went to visit her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Swift.

Mrs. and Miss McFarlane were visitors to Inyo Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Johnson of Michigan Bar, Sacramento county, were visitors at Forest Home Tuesday last.

D. F. Gray of Sutter Creek was down Sunday, returning the same day. George and Charles, of Hixville, Sacramento county, were up to visit the family of George Wirts.

Ed Wirts and Charles Barnhart went to Lagoon to hunt ducks, but they returned the same as other's did from without the ducks.

William Anderson went to Plymouth last Monday.

Mrs. May Goodman and sister, Fairy, returned last Saturday, after a visit to friends.

Mr. Babcock of Florin came up Monday, and is stopping with E. S. Taylor. F. P. Hendricks, who has been in El Dorado county mining, was in town New Year day.

MEN WITH THE MOST MONEY

Duke of Westminster's Income $50 a Minute.

KRUPP HAS THE LARGEST PRIVATE BUSINESS

The Vanderbilts, Goulds, Astors and John P. Rockefeller Lead in America.

The Rothschilds are said to be the richest family in the world. They are the money lenders of the universe, and among their customers are kings and governments. The Paris branch of the banking firm is said to keep a capital of $300,000,000 at its command and hardly a war takes place in the Eastern Hemisphere for which funds are not furnished by this family. It is hardly credible, but true nevertheless, that five generations back the ancestor of the Rothschilds was selling old clothes in the Jewish quarter of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, then, as now, the filthiest quarter of that city. When Anselm Rothschild, the founder of the family fortune, died leaving $5,000,000 to his five sons, he made them promise to keep the fortune in the family and to carry on the business together. They kept their promise and it is this policy that has been the mainspring of their success.

The richest man in England is said to be the Duke of Westminster, who has miles of tenement houses and many square miles of agricultural land, besides property of immense value in the midst of the business portion of the city of London. His income is said to be $50 a minute all the year round, $3000 an hour or $72,000 a day.

The two Noble brothers, the oil magnates of Russia and possessors of the great petroleum wells in the Caucasus, are said to be worth $400,000,000 and have a greater income than the Czar.

Krupp, the celebrated inventor and manufacturer of the guns that bear his name, has the largest private business in the world. He employs about 20,000 hands and 65,000 people derive their support from him. His income tax amounts to $37,000 a year and represents an income of more than $31,000,000 yearly.

As to the millionaires and multimillionaires in the United States, their name is legion; among them, the Vanderbilts, whose combined fortune exceeds $200,000,000 invested almost entirely in railroads which yield enormous dividends; the Astors with about an equal amount of wealth invested in real estate; the Gould family who inherited $70,000,000 from their father; John P. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Co., whose annual income is said to be $20,000,000 and who about thirty years ago was a bookkeeper in a little store in Water street, New York. Mr. Rockefeller is celebrated for his munificence as well as for his wealth and has given more than $10,000,000 to one of our Universities. It is a singular and significant fact that many men of humble origin who have built up fortunes in this country have contributed generously to Universities and other educational establishments and so provided for others the facilities for mental culture of which they themselves were deprived.

Your Face

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, pimples and skin eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Aker's Elixir. It cures all blood diseases where cheap salvarsans and so-called blood purifiers fail, knowing this we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Sold by A. Goldner.

The Number "Seven."

On the seventh day God ended his work.

In the seventh month Noah's ark touched the ground.

In seven days a dove was sent out.

Jacob mourned seven days for Joseph.

Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and yet another seven years.

A plenty of seven years and a famine of seven years were foretold in Pharaoh's dream of seven fat beasts and seven lean, and seven ears of full and seven of blasted corn.

On and after the seventh day of the seventh month the Children of Israel fasted seven days and remained in their tents.

Every seventh year the land rested. Every seventh year the law was read to the people.

In the destruction of Jericho seven persons bore triumph seven days; on the seventh day they surrounded the walls seven times and at the end of the seventh round the walls fell.

Solomon was seven years building the Temple and fasted seven days at its dedication.

Young Mothers.

Croup is the terror of thousands of young mothers, because its outbreak is so agonizing and frequently fatal. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure acts like magic in cases of Croup. It has never been known to fail. The worst cases relieved immediately. Price, 25c, 50c and $1. For sale by A. Goldner, the Druggist.

The Loneliest People on Earth.

Perhaps the most isolated tribe of people in the world is the Tshutshi, a people occupying the northern portion of the peninsula of Kamtskatka and the country northward toward Behring Straits.

These people are practically independent of Russia, who appears to have reasons of her own for letting them alone. They have practically no communication with the outside world and have only been visited two or three times—the last time by Major de Windt on his journey through Siberia.

The inhabitants of the New Siberian Islands are also practically alone on earth, for they can only communicate with the mainland, and therefore with the rest of the world, once a year, and a succession of bad seasons might isolate them for years. The pygmies of the great Central African forest, if they can be called a tribe, have been a people apart. For ages their existence was little more than legendary, and only two expeditions commanded by white men have penetrated into their abode.—Pearson's Weekly.

What Is Shiloh?

A grand old Remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption; used through the world for half a century, has cured innumerable cases of infant consumption and relieved many in advanced stages. If you are not satisfied with the results we will refund your money. Price, 25c, 50c and $1. For sale by A. Goldner, the Druggist.

Famous Men of Humble Origin.

In Bristol's Almanac for 1900 appears the following:

"History affords so many instances of men of ignoble birth who have attained by their unaided powers of mind and strength of will to high rank in the arts and sciences and occasionally to such lofty eminences as has enabled them to shape the destiny of nations, that one might be pardoned for thinking that all the world's great men, or at least the larger part of them, belonged to what are termed the 'lower classes.' We name a few of the most notable:

"Homer, the greatest of poets, was the son of a farmer.

"Demosthenes, the 'prince of orators,' was the son of a blacksmith. In his first attempt at public speaking he displayed such a weakness of voice that he withdrew from the speaker's platform amidst the hooting and laughter of his hearers.

"Virgil's father was a porter, and Horace, the son of a shopkeeper, was the foremost lyric poet and satirist of the Augustan age.

"Christopher Columbus was the son of a weaver.

"Cervantes, the renowned historian of the exploits of the chivalrous Don Quixote, was a private soldier.

"Cromwell, the great 'Protector' and the only commoner who reached what was practically the throne of England, was the son of a brewer.

"Shakespeare's father was a wool-dealer.

"Burns was the son of a small farmer.

"Nor are the fair sex without a representative among those who have achieved greatness from small beginnings, as witness the famous Catherine, Empress of Russia, originally a Livonian peasant and camp follower.

"Who, with such examples before him, can believe that low birth offers an insuperable barrier to fame or fortune, especially in this country, where no such class distinctions exist as the above mentioned celebrities had to contend with."

Sick Headaches.

The curse of overworked womanhood, are quickly and surely cured by Karl's Clover Root Tea, the great blood-purifier and tissue-builder. Money refunded if not satisfactory. Price, 25c and 50c. For sale by A. Goldner, the Druggist.

Is It Coming to This?

The keeper pointed sadly to the inmate of the padded cell.

"This," he said "is our worst case. He is trying to get some one to answer a conundrum for him."

"What is the conundrum?" asked the visitor, who is somewhat of a guesser himself.

"Why, it goes this way: 'What is it that is not, but will be, yet it is now, though it never has been before, and we will not see its end?'"

"My dear man," said the visitor, "you'll find the answer to that in the newspapers. It is the twentieth century."—Baltimore American.

Dentistry Thirty Centuries Ago.

It is generally believed that dentistry is the most modern of the sciences and American dentists are prone to claim for their country the many discoveries which have marked the progress of their profession in late years. It is, not a little curious to may note that of their principal contrivances were known and practiced as far back as the times of the Pharaohs, as has been proved by an examination of the mouths of several Egyptian mummies, which, in gold-filled molars and false teeth made from ivory or the fangs of crocodiles, exhibit unmistakable traces of the work of the dental surgeon thirty centuries ago.

Aker's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold on a positive guarantee. Cures heartburn, raising of the food, distress after eating or any form of dyspepsia. One little tablet gives immediate relief; 25 cents and 50 cents. Sold by A. Goldner.

He Was Qualified.

"I hear," said the caller to the head of a large firm of importers, "that you are seeking for a man to represent your house in London."

"Yes, that is true."

"Then I wish to apply for the situation."

"What qualifications for the place do you possess?"

"Well, I speak the language,"—Harper's Bazar.

WATER STORAGE.

An Opportunity for Display of American Statesmanship—Reclaim the Desert.

"Water Storage for the Reclamation of Arid Lands" was a subject recently discussed in a lecture by Hon. Frederick H. Nowell, the irrigation expert of the Geological Survey. Mr. Nowell has probably made as close a study of the subject of irrigation as any man in the country and he views the question from a very broad standpoint, having reached his conclusions after traversing nearly every foot of the great West and observing the operation of different irrigation systems and the effect of various State and local laws and regulations.

Expansion of territory, externally, he says, is distracting attention from problems equally as great, if not more important, namely those of the extension of agricultural areas and the utilization of mineral resources well within the present limits of the United States. There is an ample field for statesmanship in directing the utilization of untouched opportunities, since we still have one-third of our entire country existing as vacant public land, rich in possibilities. As an instance, fully nine-tenths of the vast extent of Arizona, Nevada and adjacent areas remain in the hands of the General Government. Much of the soil is highly productive under irrigation, while the more rugged parts contain great mineral wealth, which can profitably be developed when labor and easy transportation can be had.

The West is full of great mining possibilities. What are needed for their development are good transportation and good labor. Both of these items are today in many sections beyond all reasonable expense. Why? Because the situations are arid, the country supports no population of its own, and, as everything must be transported at tremendous cost, labor brought in demands immense wages. Give such sections water for irrigation, and the valleys would be settled by farmers, living for the miners would be cheap, naturally the railroads would follow a staple agricultural community, and transportation would be reduced. The key-stone of western progress is water and the construction of storage basins to save that water.

You Try It.

If Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure, which is sold for the small price of 25c, 50c and $1, does not cure, take the bottle back and we will refund your money. Sold for over fifty years on this guarantee. Price, 25c and 50c. For sale by A. Goldner, the Druggist.

Some Maxims of Talleyrand.

Prudence in woman should be an instinct, not a virtue.

The imagination of men is often the refuge of their prejudices.

Love is a reality which is born in the fairy region of romance.

What I have been taught I have forgotten; what I know I have guessed.

Certain acts may be legal, but never legitimate.

Love of glory makes a hero, contempt of it a great man.

J. L. Berry, Logan, Pa., writes, "I am willing to take my oath that I was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure after doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grip and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. City Pharmacy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

He Tried a Sample Bottle

Nearly every day people come into drug stores and ask the Druggists to recommend some medicine for their trouble. Very often they refuse to do so, because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to advise anyone to take a patent medicine of which they do not know the ingredients. It is the physician's business to prescribe. Some make an exception, however, when they are asked to recommend Aker's English Remedy, because I know just what it will do. It has cured every case where I have seen it tried. It is the best expectorant and tonic I ever handled in my 14 years' experience. I will give just one instance of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. I advised Aker's English Remedy. He tried a sample bottle, and was cured before he had taken half of it, at no cost whatever. This is an exceptional case, however, as it usually takes two or three bottles."
